

Announcement

The 1999 Massry Prize in Nephrology, Physiology and Related Fields

The 1999 Massry prize will be awarded by the Meira and Shaul G. Massry Foundation to an eminent scientist who has made extraordinary and meritorious contributions in one of the following two fields: (1) Protein Trafficking, (2) Cell to Cell Communication.

Nominations

- (1) Nominations may come from any country and must be made in writing. Seven copies of the nomination package should be mailed before Friday, May 21, 1999, to the Meira and Shaul G. Massry Foundation
1140 Benedict Canyon Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210 (USA)
- (2) Only one candidate may be nominated by each:
 - (a) deans of medical schools;
 - (b) members of the National Academy of Sciences;
 - (c) Nobel prize laureates in physiology and medicine;
 - (d) eminent scientists who may be selected by the Board of Directors of the Foundation.Self-nominations are not acceptable.
- (3) The nomination package should include the curriculum vitae of the nominee, 5 of her or his most important publications, names of 4 referees with their telephone and fax numbers, and a letter providing in detail the scientific contributions of the nominee, the impact of her or his work on the scientific community and the relevance of her or his work to the advancement of health.
- (4) The nominations will be reviewed by a special independent selection committee who will choose the awardee.
- (5) The prize consists of the Massry gold medal and a substantial monetary award.
- (6) The awardee of the Massry Prize must appear in person to receive the prize in Los Angeles.