

In the article entitled “Exploring Pain, Quality of Life, and Emotional Well-Being in Patients with Advanced Pancreatic Cancer Practicing Spiritual Meditation: A Pilot Study” [Complement Med Research. 2023;30(4):289–98; DOI: 10.1159/000529865] by Eggers et al., the Funding Sources as published did not include detail of the resources provided by Wolfgang Maly, as mentioned in the Acknowledgement section of the original article. The Funding Sources should read as follows:

Funding Sources

The study was supported by funds from the Theophrastus Foundation, Germany, and the Schweizer-Arau-Foundation, Germany, to Karin Meissner. Free meditation sessions with the study patients were enabled by Wolfgang Maly. None of the above had any role in the study design, execution and analysis, and/or manuscript conception, planning, writing and the decision to publish.
